

Make a gift, leave a legacy

The celebration of our 125-year history in 2016 reinvigorated the Allendale Columbia community. It is an opportune time to rename our planned giving society. As a result, effective July 1st, 2017, we will modify the name of the Century II Society to the Legacy Leadership Circle. Now well into our second century, we are grateful to everyone who has put our community at the top of their planned giving priorities with a vision to leave a life-changing legacy at Allendale Columbia School.

The Legacy Leadership Circle celebrates members of the Allendale Columbia community who make a planned gift through their wills or living trusts, designate the school as the beneficiary of a life insurance plan or a retirement account, or fund a life income gift for the benefit of the school. Legacy Leadership Circle members share a desire to make it possible for their support to extend beyond their lifetime to have a lasting impact on the AC community.

Your planned gift has a lasting impact

Today's planned gifts will help to provide extraordinary possibilities for the unscripted future and ensure the school's strength and long-term success.

You can make an impact on the lives of Allendale Columbia students for generations to come by crafting your own thoughtful legacy. AC offers a variety of mutually beneficial planned giving tools that can match your priorities and provide different benefits, including lifetime income, capital gains tax savings, and income tax deduction.

Legacy Leadership Circle Members

This list represents the alumni, parents, grandparents, faculty, and friends who are members of the Legacy Leadership Circle. Their legacies will have an everlasting impact on Allendale Columbia School and we are grateful for their generosity. Thank you!
